sponsored by
Boys & Girls Clubs of Bandera County & Kerrville Folk Festival Foundation

Who? Teens interested in songwriting, creative writing, music foundation & performance skills

What? Kerrville Music Camp for Teens

When? July 21 – 25 Campers arrive Sunday at 2pm and depart Thursday at 10am

Where? Quiet Valley Ranch in Kerrville, Texas

The Kerrville Music Camp for Teens is a State of Texas licensed youth camp. In order to attend, a camp application must be completed for each camper including a copy of the campers shot records. All volunteers and staff must complete a background check and an Abuse Training Course.

Cost - The cost per participant is only $175.00 to attend and includes meals, lodging and all activities. Scholarships are available, please contact Jena Kirkpatrick at jena@jenapoetforhire.com for more information.

Details - The 17th Annual Music Camp for Teens will be held at Quiet Valley Ranch July 21-25 in Kerrville, Texas. A faculty of top music professionals teach and inspire 60-75 young people ages 13-18 with courses in songwriting, creative writing, music foundation, and performance skills as well as helping campers realize and find their individual voices. Activities include daily workshops, nightly open mics with group and individual performances, and a canoe trip on the Guadalupe River. Along with the core faculty, there is a team of staff members, including professionals from the Boys & Girls Clubs of Bandera County, medical professionals, and a group of dedicated volunteers. This camp is a highly motivational and safe environment with a special emphasis on encouraging respect for others. Our artist instructor staff for the past 15 years includes five-time GRAMMY Award winner, Roy Wooten, two-time GRAMMY Award nominee, Steve Seskin, Tom Prasada-Rao, Annie Wenz, Ken Gaines, Bill Oliver and Jena Kirkpatrick.

Camping at Quiet Valley Ranch is probably the best way to experience the scenic Hill Country and the magic of the 2024 Kerrville Music Camp for Teens. Some of the best music will be heard by our campers and artist instructors at the campgrounds in the evening. Warm showers and clean toilet facilities are located throughout the campgrounds.

NO PETS ALLOWED
NO FIREARMS OR CONCEALED WEAPONS
NO DRUGS OR ALCOHOL

2024 Kerrville Music Camp for Teens

Dear Youth Participant:

Welcome Home!! We say that because our campers return year after year! The staff of the 2024 Kerrville Music Camp for Teens would like to extend a warm Hill Country welcome to our campers. This is our 17th year hosting the Kerrville Music Camp for Teens and we always look forward to this being a positive experience for everyone.

The staff has goals we've set that we hope to accomplish and we want our campers to join in as well!

- ▶ Having fun
- ▶ Getting to make new friends
- ▶ Getting to know ourselves a little better
- ▶ Trying new things
- ▶ Working and playing hard
- ▶ Meeting challenges, both large and small

This camp will give you opportunities to have fun, as well as try some new things. We hope you will use some of your travel time by setting some specific personal goals for yourself to practice while you are here.

Registration begins at 2:00 pm on Sunday, July 21st and orientation will begin at 5:30 pm at the Threadgill Theater. During registration, you will receive a schedule including all of the incredible activities in which you will participate with your fellow campers. Once you arrive at the ranch, you will have time to settle in, set-up camp and begin meeting new friends. Your registration packet contains a supply list that will help you decide what to bring and what not to bring. One thing listed on the supply list needs a little explanation. We want you to bring an outrageous piece of clothing (a hat, a crazy colored shirt or pair of shorts). The idea is to create a celebration for our final Wednesday night open mic performance.
